BRIEF MENTIONINGS.

Events in and About the City Given in a Nutshell.

Base ball this afternoon—Wheeling vs. Dayton.

The council committees on health, markets, scales and real estate are called to meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

To-morrow evening at the High school hall an entertainment will be given by the pupils. The programme consists of musical selections, and the drama, "A Box of Monkeys."

Miss Emma L. Zoller, who is a graduate of Byron W. King's School of Oratory, of Pittsburgh, will give an evening of select readings at Fourth Street M. E. church this evening, under the auspices of the Epworth League.

On Wednesday, June 14, the A. O. U. W. lodges will hold their annual outing at Wheeling Park. Sister lodges from all over the state will be in attendance. Members are all requested to come, and bring their families and to invite their friends. Members are also requested to decorate their homes.

Very handsome invitations for the Washington & Jefferson College commencement exercises have been received in the city. The exercises continue from June 18 to June 21, the commencement occurring on the latter date. There are forty-nine graduates this year.

Laughlin Tin Mill Closed.

The Laughlin tin mill, controlled by the American Tin Plate Company, was shut down indefinitely Saturday. No reason for closing the mills is known, but it is supposed that the advance asked by the Amalgamated Association has a bearing indirectly.

A. O. U. W. OUTING, Wednesday, June 14, at Wheeling Park.

HEAR Miss Emma L. Zoller, a graduate of King's School of Oratory, at Fourth Street M. E. Church to-night.

FOR "IMMUNES."

Meeting of the Demonstration Committees This Evening.

THE DATE OF THE AFFAIR

Is not yet Decided, Secretary Alger Having Failed to Reply to Congressman Dovenor's Telegraphic Request that the Company be Mustered out on Wednesday—The Matter Will Probably be Determined To-day.

This evening at 7:30 o'clock, in the rooms of the chamber of commerce, there will be meetings of the "Immunes" demonstration committees on parade, finance and speakers and music, to be followed by a meeting of the general committee half an hour later. It is urgently requested that a full representation of each committee attend, as it is necessary to rush the arrangements for the demonstration at a rapid rate in order to have everything in readiness for the arrival of the Boys in Blue on Thursday or Friday.

The secretary of the general committee yesterday received a letter from Captain Albert A. Franzheim, of the "Immunes," stating that he had been surprised to see in a newspaper that an effort was being made to have his company mustered out a day earlier. He desired information as to why the change was requested. This information had already been sent in the shape of a full report of the first meeting of the general committee held last Thursday evening, and doubtless the boys will not object to coming a day earlier if the efforts in that line are successful.

Congressman Dovenor fully expected an answer from Secretary Alger Saturday, but none had been received even so late is Sunday night. Possibly the amount of "red tape" that afflicts the government departments is responsible for the delay in getting an answer to so simple a request. If the change cannot be made it will have the effect of cutting down the numerical participation on the parts of the Knights of Pythias, but all three of the Uniform Rank companies will turn out even if the original date, Friday, is adhered to.

The following committeemen are requested to be on hand at 7:30 o'clock, prompt, to-night:

Finance—John Waterhouse, F. G. Caldwell, Allen Brock, H. C. Meyer.

Parade—John M. Birch, Frank Lisby, Major Truschel, Joseph A. Arkle, G. J. Mathison, Joseph A. Weltzel, L. N. Reefer, B. C. Dent, R. Robertson, Harry Taylor, J. T. McGee, R. E. Shafer.

Speakers and Music—H. V. Arkle, F. W. Colmar, E. J. McGowan, C. A. Feinler, W. F. Schaefer, R. M. Archer, W. H. Woodruff, Joseph C. Brady, C. C. Schmidt, F. Reister, Edward Sylvius, George Wise.

The following are the members of the general committee, who are earnestly requested to attend the meeting this evening, beginning at 8 o'clock: Mayor Andrew T. Sweeney, James P. Maxwell, M. A. Chew, John Waterhouse, H. P. McGregor, Andrew S. Hare, F. Riester, C. A. Feinler, L. N. Reefer, Charles C. Schmidt, Will F. Schaefer, George Wise, Joseph C. Brady, Frank G. Caldwell, Howard Hazlett, Allen Brock, R. M. Archer, H. V. Arkle, W. H. Woodruff, John K. List, Will W. Irwin, C. Hirsch, Prof. John M. Birch, Lieutenant B. C. Dent, R. E. Shafer, M. H. McNabb, Frank Lisby, W. H. Rose, James T. McGee, H. C. Meyer, Richard Robertson, Thomas G. Britt, H. J. Felber, Joseph A. Arkle, Jacob Honecker, Edward Sylvius, Harry Taylor, Major Truschel, George S. Feeney, Jr., George J. Mathison, Dr. C. A. Wingerter, E. J. McGowan, Joseph A. Weltzel, C. E. Calligan.

The finance committee will circulate in the business district to-day to solicit the funds needed to defray the expenses of the demonstration.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Going and Coming of Wheeling People and Visitors.

Letters received by relatives from Will Egarter, dated May 6, at Quartz Creek, in the Klondike, report that he is in good health and has good prospects. Some anxiety had been felt for the safety of Mr. Egarter, as he had not been heard from for four months, his friends having heretofore received letters from him at least once a month. He has been far in the interior and cut off from direct mail communication.

Elwood Horkheimer is home from Cornell University.

A. H. Fleming, the well known traveling man, spent Sunday in the city.

Rev. O. H. Moye, of the Cathedral, left last evening, to spend a few days at his old home in Pittsburgh.

MR. P. KETCHAM, of Pike City, Cal., says: "During my brother's late sickness from sciatic rheumatism, Chamberlain's Pain Balm was the only remedy that gave him any relief." Many others have testified to the prompt relief from pain which this liniment affords. For sale by druggists.

Attention! Shriver Grays Camp 907 U. C. V.

Meet at the corner of Twelfth and Chapline streets at 2 p. m. sharp, on Wednesday next, June 7, 1899, with flowers to decorate graves of your comrades.

Daughters of the Confederacy are earnestly requested to meet also. All persons desiring to do so, will leave flowers at drug store at above corner before 1 o'clock. Motor fare, with stop-off privilege, round trip, 15 cents.

ROBT. WHITE, Commander.

MARTIN THORNTON, Adjutant.

A. O. U. W. OUTING, Wednesday, June 14, at Wheeling Park.
